

Stock Market Crash

Below are some prophecies, dreams, and vision concerning the upcoming stock market crash. First I am including those that the Lord has given me. They are classified by date as follows: year/month/date/number. After these some through other prophets.

19971116.1

Hear the Word of the Lord. Hear it, listen, learn, and follow what the Lord reveals to His servants.

Coming is the time, near is the time, and soon shall be when the economy shall completely collapse. It will not come totally at once. First there'll be some problems, then there'll be a crash, and so forth.

But don't expect you to live through this without My power. It is coming, because I have stated it, as I have willed it. Do not pray against it. Pray for it. For those who base their finances on the kingdom of this world -- they shall fall, and fall big time.

Many of My people: they have not sought the things of the spiritual things, the things of the spiritual items that I can give, but they have rather sought, rather they have much sought the will of man and they will fall with it.

If they would seek the things of God, I would prepare a way where they would go through this with every single need met, but they will not do that. Their hearts are not turned toward Me, but rather they are turned toward the finances of this world. It is because of that, that they will fall with this crash.

So listen and obey. Learn the word of God. Learn it. Learn it. Learn to obey the Word. Listen to it carefully.

Listen, there is a time coming when everything in this world will not work the way it has. Everything!

Slowly, but surely every part of this earth will be judged by Me. And those who have put their faith in the things of the earth will fall with the things of the earth. But those who have put their faith in Me, says the Lord, they will rise above it. They shall be a shelter in the time of storm -- even for others. And they will walk, and they will not be bothered by it. So what if there is rubble to the left and rubble to the right, they will walk on the straight and narrow of the Word of the living God.

Late in the evening when I had gone to bed, just as I closed my eyes, but was still awake, I saw a bright flash, and the sound of a popping light bulb (as when it bursts).

The Lord then said, "That's how quickly the economy will fall."

19980705.1

This is the circumstances to which this world is now heading. It will lose control of its societies as it heads in to the greatest economic collapse that will befall mankind.

This collapse shall come fairly quickly, and as it comes people will stop obeying the law, because it is no longer convenient for them. As they become economically deprived they shall turn to illegal activities in greater and greater numbers, till authorities cannot control it in any way.

19990213.2

The Lord gave me the following revelation concerning the upcoming economic crash on the afternoon of February 13, 1999.

1. The Crash:

The crash will come soon. It will be a time of great disparity of mankind. From this time on there will be no turning back. Turmoil and trouble will come to all those who will not put their complete faith in God.

2. The Continuing Attempts to Put Things Right:

These will result in much hope and thinking that things will straighten out in a short time.

At the beginning there will be an acceptance of the markets coming back. This will lead to a short term rising of the markets in a significant way. But only for a short time. Again it will crash and this time it will stay quite low. No attempts from this time forward will bring markets back to any significant degree.

3. Violence:

Violence will become so bad that people will seek to leave the larger cities to take up residence in the country at almost any cost. This will mainly be available to those who still have some money left to them.

Police and authorities will not be able to keep things under control.

The streets of many large cities will become a struggle of power for many gangs. Police will settle for keeping gangs from tying up too much police manpower in keeping the gang wars to a minimum.

Violence shall come to all areas. While cities and larger areas will be worse, it will be bad everywhere on the North American continent.

4. The Settling In:

So many different disasters will be taking place that thought of bringing the market back will disappear over time and people will just accept the fact that times are bad.

19990820.1

My people, My people, who are you, that you are so in love with money -- with the things of this earth. Who are you that you love the ways of the devil! You love the money, you love the cars, you love the houses, you love the rich life.

But there's coming a day, that is almost upon you, when it shall be taken away. And what is left will be minimal.

Those who have their hearts on the things of this earth, are going to lose it. Those of My people who especially know the truth, yet love the world, they shall fall hard!

There are days coming, soon to be upon you, when you shall see the crash of the entire economy. When it comes, do not be alarmed. Do not go out in trying to save your goods which you have so hoarded up.

For treasure that is built upon the firm foundation of the Rock Christ Jesus -- it shall remain. Treasure that is built on the earth shall decay, shall rot, and shall fade.

Don't seek what you have built up on this earth. Let it go. Let it go. Let it go. And turn to the Rock, and He will help you, and He will lift you up, and you'll have treasure in Heaven, and not on earth.

These coming days that soon shall be when this earth shall reel from the economic deprivation of money:

They won't understand how it could happen. The economy was so strong. The economy was doing so great. The economy was excellent. The economy was the way it should be. And yet, it shall not be. And the remainder of what's left will be a sluggish, slow economy -- much unemployment, and much unrest. But that shall be the beginning.

For people that are unemployed -- they shall seek to live by whatever means they can. Violence shall erupt as it has not erupted in a long, long time. Many cities shall have serious crime like they have not known, nor could they have ever imagined.

This is what's coming. This is what's coming. Those who put their faith on Me shall walk with Me, says the Lord. Those who put their faith on the things of this earth shall find how fragile the promises of this world can actually be.

Stock Market Crash Through Harold Eatmon (1997)

"...In my last article I mentioned a vision of the Stock Market's 'Big Board' having serious upcoming problems. I saw the Stock Market soar and then crash. After the crash, many big business corporations and private parties bought up stocks because of the low cost to buy in. Then I saw the market begin to climb again in a short period of time. Then it crashed again bringing tremendous loss, ruin, and devastation to all who bought in the first time. This is what I have labelled "Two Black Mondays." The time period between the Two Black Mondays was very close together. I could not tell exactly how close. It could be a couple of days to a couple of months. There are some tell-tale signs indicating the season and the setting. I saw the season to be when 'the leaves fall to the ground' then the first crash would occur. I also saw the Yen and Mark fall dramatically just before this sudden and inexplicable crash. Like Joseph in Genesis, I believe America will have fat years of financial blessing. I also believe there are coming lean years of financial difficulty for America. I do not believe God is showing this so people can beat the game financially. I rather believe He is saying keep your eyes on eternal things. Store up treasures in Heaven."

"The Lord is speaking to us through many types of revelatory and tangible waves. There are financial waves, natural disaster waves, health waves, political waves, and last, but certainly not least, are spiritual awakening waves. Whether it is natural waves of revelation or supernatural waves of prophecy, we are called to have ears to hear what the Spirit is saying. God is saying these are days for repentance, healing, salvation, and blessing. Our God is speaking. The question is, are we truly watching, waiting, and listening?"

Prophetic Word through sister Jane Lowder.

(from Ashland, Virginia, Calvary Pentecostal Tabernacle Worship Service)
(January 3, 1999)

Word from the Lord:

I continue to see a vision of a building, and across that building is written these words "WESTINGHOUSE". As I look upon these words "WESTINGHOUSE", I see that the letters begin to fall, starting with the "G" and "H" from the center of it. They fall down as if in a drain. As these letters fall off of this building, I see this building crumble and fall. I hear the Lord say that the foundation is shaking of great companies that are in good standing and in good order. They shall fall and shall be no more.

The Lord said that there shall be mergings of small companies with the larger companies where the thinking is one of safety, but it shall not be safety. Suddenly, banks shall close without notice, and the stock market shall hit an all-time low. The Lord says that the end is not yet, for the stock market shall rise again and bring false hope to thousands. These things shall be and you shall look upon them and know that I have warned you.

The oil and the petroleum shall go sky high. There will come a time when the lines shall be long, and the hearts shall fail, and the anger shall erupt because of the things that are happening. These are days when I shall allow the extremes to come. That which is precious to Me shall be turned unto Me. The soul of man is very precious. Therefore, lift up your hands and your head. Lift them up to your Redeemer and know that even as the world shall rock, you shall stand in a sure place with your eyes upon Me. I would have you to hold steady in the midst of the trouble and these things that shall come upon the earth and upon all nations.

There comes also a wind. It is a wind that will be favorable, but it is not My wind. If you shall follow after this wind, you will find yourself shipwrecked, for in this wind it will seem that all things have been put together again, and it would look as if things would blossom and bloom and be fruitful. It shall be for a short season, but do not put your finances in it and do not invest your monies in it. That which you think shall stand shall fall, and that which others think would fall is that which shall stand.

Lift up your eyes and behold your King who sits upon the Throne, and who has your name written in the palms of His hand and has His eye upon you to lead you and guide you. I shall steady you and shall cause you to stand. Surely you shall be My light, My voice and My outreached hand.

Many of My people have, as it were, their head in the sand, for they hear with their ears, and they see with their eyes, but they do not understand with their hearts. Tell Me, can you feel the wind when it blows? Can you feel the cold air? When your electricity goes off, does your house get cold? Lift up your head and look up unto Me, for these elements shall touch all people. Though you are called a Christian, you shall feel the coldness, and you shall feel the heat. You shall feel many things of that which is round about you, but I shall keep you and uphold you, and I shall make a way where there is no way. I do not want you to be ignorant of all things that shall come upon the earth and even upon your neighborhood. Lift up your eyes unto your Redeemer, and let your spirit see and understand. For I call you to take a stand this day and follow after Me with the wholeness of your heart. I shall be your shelter. I shall be your lifter and your helper. I shall keep you, but know that these things shall come upon the earth and upon your own country and in your own city. You shall know that I, the Lord, allow it.

There are many that shall call upon My name, and they shall come to know Me. Do not trust in your riches or in your bank account. Do not trust in the establishment of your home. Let your trust be in nothing that is made with hands, for this world and the world system are built on sinking sand. You shall see many come crumbling down and sinking, but it shall not be so with you, for you are built upon a Rock and established upon the goings of the Eternal One. Rejoice in Me. Rejoice, rejoice with an exceeding goodness and gladness in your heart. You have said "signs and wonders" and signs and wonders it shall be, for you have sung that the oil shall be poured out and even the wine, and it shall be. Therefore, rejoice, for I, the Lord, stand in control, and I have all things in control. Arise to your feet and lift up your hands and declare unto the Lord that this day you shall hear with a hearing and see with a seeing, and you shall follow after Me. The time is short, and the hour is at hand. You shall see the great movements of your God and the rhythms of your God that shall flow throughout the earth and into all nations.

Australia and the Asian countries also shall shake. You would say they have already been shaken, but that was only a rattle. There shall be a shaking that will cause the heart of man to fear and cry out unto Me. Therefore, sing unto your God and sing often of My mercy and My goodness. Though all these elements come, My mercy and My goodness shall never fail. They endure forever. You shall see, as you have declared, a great revival and a mighty incoming from those that are without. I am that I am, and I change not. This is the beginning of a great shaking. It is not for My family that stands true and waits upon Me. Sing of My mercy and declare it in all places. For you shall be the salt of the earth, and you shall be the light and the hands that are stretched out to comfort and to build and to bring into order.
